Lassen Superior Court has a Family Law Facilitator who will help you with family law problems for free. A new phone number has been created for the Facilitator that allows you to send a text or leave a voicemail with a brief summary of the assistance you are needing.

To add yourself to the list for callbacks, please text (530) 903-5838 and be sure to include your name and a good callback number. Callbacks will be made in the order in which they were received. Please be prepared to answer a text or call back from the number above to be provided with the appropriate assistance.

The Facilitator serves in an educational role and does not represent any party or person in an attorney-client relationship and does not provide specific legal advice.
