LASSEN SUPERIOR COURT – LEGAL SELF-HELP SERVICES

Lassen Superior Court provides free Legal Self-Help services to self-represented court users on a first-come, first-served basis. Assistance is available through remote Friday call-backs and, when appropriate and available, in-person appointments on Thursdays.

How to Request Services

To request a Friday call-back or to be considered for a Thursday in-person appointment, text or call and leave a voicemail at:

Legal Self-Help Text or Voicemail: (530) 251-3935

Please include your name, a good call-back number, and a brief summary of the assistance you are requesting in your message.

Be prepared to receive a text or call from (530) 251-3935 on Thursday or Friday so that appropriate assistance can be provided.

Important Information

Call-backs will be made in the order requests are received by text or voicemail to (530) 251-3935.

Only a limited number of people will be called back.

The Self-Help Attorney serves in an educational role only. The Self-Help Attorney does not represent any party or person and does not form an attorney-client relationship. Self-help staff provide legal information and procedural assistance, not specific legal advice.
